Bay High and Stars at MSU

Billy Thomas, former Bay High end, played left end on Mississippi State's Bulldog team on Saturday.

Along with his dad, Glenn Thomas (of Pear), Billy saw plenty of action in the Maroons during the first two quarters of the annual junior-squad football classic.

The Maroons, composed of MSU's defense squad, were not favored against the offensive White. Yet the final score was 13-9 in their favor.

How soft meeting?

Indicates that the players, including the manager of the Bay St. Louis League now called the 1000 Club, Monday at the Frenchmen Club.

Chairman Paul G. Johnson has urged that all members, new as well as old, present so that full discussion and vote can be had on the league season's program.

As this meeting has previously been called for Thursday, all members are respectfully asked to note this date.

Deadline for registration fees is May 3. Fees are payable to the city Parks and Recreation Commission, which sponsors and supervises the softball league program.

2 stabbed in tow

Mary Scott, 27, of 420 1st Street, New Orleans, was taken to Hancock General Hospital around 3 p.m. Tuesday by Deputy Sheriff Fred Currit for treatment of knife wounds of the right shoulder and back, suffered in an altercation at Carrie Layne's Lounge on U.S. 90.

Jailed on charges of assault and battery and petit larceny is Audrey Jane Stacey, 27, of Shoreline Park and Charles Earl Brown, 31, also charged with assault and battery and held as a material witness after receiving emergency treatment at Hancock General for a slash beneath his arm. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of his brother, Thomas (Whitey) Brown, Jr., 36, for assault and battery with intent to kill.

Sheriff Sylvan J. Ladner, Jr., said an argument began earlier at Lee's Place when Scott accicused Mrs. Stacey of taking change from a $20 bill he had placed on the bar, and continued when the group moved on to Layne's. Scott stated that he was stabbed by the older Brown when he again brought up the subject of the missing money.

Ladner said he expected to have Thaddeus Brown in custody shortly.

It is with much regret that we begin this, our last such column.

We've really enjoyed five years and several odd months but with the current increase in other activity, something has to give. All would be well if we could discover some way to increase our usual working day of about 16 to 17 hours, including the usual household chores, of course. If there was a way to add even four hours, it would prove quite helpful. The column has progressed from five or six paragraphs, in which the activities of exactly 23 people were mentioned in the initial issue of the late and still lamented (by some) Waveland Advocate, published Dec. 8, 1959, to the realms of copy we now turn out each week. We feel a bit chicken tossing in the sponge in this manner, but it's either give up or find out if Whinfield has any vacancies.

April fool!

Sorry, but just couldn't resist the temptation when the date coincided with our date of publication. All of the above is true, but we're just going to have to manage to get by with less sleep...the thought of not trying to find out what everyone around is doing and reporting on same is not much of a habit to break at this late date!

Back to business

That probably wasn't too original but at least it's bound to be a refreshing change from our continual complaining about the weather and utter frustration about being completely helpless where remedying the situation is concerned.

Our apologies to fellow animal fan, Elise Kellogg for misplacing notes about her guests last week. Visiting she and Mr. Kellogg were her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Harker and children Bobby and Elise of Evanston, Ill.

Might as well start with the those-on-the-mend and others still on the sick list. Tom Bressler is back on the job looking as if he'd never been ill; Lee Costa's pleurisy appears cured; Gladys (Mrs. Harry) Baxter has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to be visiting cousins in New Orleans and Bob Pugh who had pneumonia is also up and about again. Basil Cockshott is now able to drive, although his doctor still restricts too much activity much to his vexation. Raymond Drew, so seriously injured in an automobile accident two weeks ago, is reported to be recovering and Betty Phillip's surgeon was pleased with her condition and didn't recommend further hip surgery as she had feared.

Feathers in several hats

We have to brag too much about the effectiveness of Echo classified advertising, but when Mrs. Frank Kellar called to cancel her house for rent after it had only run two weeks saying she rented not only one, but two houses from the same ad, we just have to crow a little bit.

Our old friend Rev. Bertrand Eckert is home once again after a sea voyage to India and Egypt. He even brought us some real dates from the latter country. Perhaps when he returns to India he can find us a stuffed cobra. It seems an odd item to have a yen for, but imagine what a conversation piece it would make!

A belated happy birthday wish goes to Miss Ann Dolan who cut her cake last Tuesday, Mar. 23. Miss Dolan flew here from Pittsburgh, Pa., and is visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Frare and niece Thelma Dickson and husband Charles.

Making clean sales

We can usually trust Bob Geiger to come up with something newsworthy but the day of the Bay-Waveland Garden Club pilgrimage he out-did himself. He's the only art dealer in history (at least as far as we can ascertain) to sell a painting while in the bath tub. He was running a bit behind schedule what with polishing up everything in sight for his visitors, so made a last minute dash for a bath. He had just gotten underway when he heard the sound of unmistakably feminine footstep, three pairs of them. The ladies had arrived a little early determined to purchase a certain water color. The transaction was accomplished through the bathroom door (closed of course) and they departed happily while Bob completed his ablutions. We'll add that the deal was given decorum by Dr. Walter Hawe who was busily making pink punch in the background.

To prevent others from making the same mistake, we feel we should explain that one of our new and most eligible (and eligible bachelors, Frank Smith is a dead ringer for Mickey Horne, here for a couple of years with Ralston.

Dawn and Diane, two young girls, are among members of the teen-age class of Waveland Methodist Church who will present a cake sale Saturday, April 3, between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. at Jitney Jungle to help raise funds for the new church.

The early promotion program is the result of a new Department of the Army policy to recognize and provide incentive to outstanding trainees. The 21-year-old Moldenhauer graduated from McDonnell High School, New Orleans in 1961 and attended Louisiana State University. He is a member of Sigma Pi fraternity. Teen times...

That off-again, on-again twosome, Jackie Kingston and Ray Kidd, are on the outs at present, but if their romance runs true to form, they will have most likely patched up differences before this goes to press.

SJA latin students, Lucille Giannetta, Shery Stoessel, Jewell Tiemann, Jeanne McColister and Betty Veglin didn't return with laurel wreaths and scrolls, top awards in the contest held at Loyola University on Saturday, but none-the-less, did themselves quite proud in competition. The students' composure was shaken when they encountered the approximately 2,000 spectators at the event and the professor-comes-question-master tossed questions about first in Latin then in English, which didn't make things exactly easy. A boy from Fortier took top honors and the runner-up was a student at Jesuit. Our Beagle reporter, Lucille Giannetta stood up for several rounds in a round robin contest giving all the correct answers, but was disqualified on an error in pronunciation. Anyway, we're very proud of all our girls.

More birthday wishes Ronnie LaFontaine cut his 16th cake on Thursday, Mar. 4, and weekender Kathy Serpas, who with her equally talented sisters Sue and Darlene and friend Susie Toca, twirled batons in several Crescent City parades, was 12 on Feb. 16.

Maids to queen Patricia Griffin, ruler of the second annual St. Patrick's Day parade were three Debbie's, Lucas, Longo and Poolson, Patsy Raymond, Jeanine Gianelloni and Gail Longo, one of whom will reign as queen of the 1966 fete.

Dale Russell will be modeling fashions at an Edgewater shopping center store come Saturday.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY
ALSO GO TO TEDDY BILBO WHO WAS 19 MARCH 22.

About 30 guests enjoyed Lorraine de Montluzin's 17th birthday dance held at her home Saturday night, March 13.

J.P. Comprett celebrated his 20th and St. Patrick's Day together on Wednesday, March 17.

William Peirce also observed a birthday recently. William was 21 on March 3.

Welcome newcomers Dora Simmons and Don Favre, Dora hails from Houma, La., and Don from Maryland. Both seem to have made rapid adjustments to Bay High.

Is there any truth to the rumor that Joy Carver is Ned Heath's new flame???
